

What Happens When We Die?

Death And The Unbeliever (Part 2)

Luke 16:19-31

- I. The Immediate Consciousness Of Their Existence (vv 22-23a)
- II. The Agonizing Torment Of Eternal Suffering (vv 23b, 24b, 28b)
- III. The Horrible _____ Of Spiritual Death (vv 23b, 26)

The greatest death of all is not _____ death, it is _____ death.

Just as physical death means the separation of the spirit from the body, so it is that spiritual death means the separation of _____ from _____.

The phrase that is translated “great chasm” literally means “_____.”

The point is, the separation between God and the unbeliever is eternally _____ - without any hope of ever changing.

Not only will there be no annihilation in Hell, but there won't be any _____ either.

Hell is eternal	in a place of eternal	.
-------------------------------	-------------------------------------	-----------------

In Hell, the unbelieving sinner will live with the conscious agony that he or she is forever estranged from their Maker, and that they can do _____ about it!

Nowhere in the Bible are we given any reason to think that people will have another _____ to trust in Jesus after they die. (Hebrews 9:27)

The painful truth that is emphasized in this chapter is that the instant an unbeliever dies, they will awaken in Hell and be forever _____ from their Creator and their God.

- IV. The Dreaded _____ Of Absolute Helplessness (vv 27-31)

One of the unspoken horrors experienced by those who are in Hell today, is the _____ realization that those they love who've not believed in Jesus are going to soon be plunging headlong into the very pit of Hell in which they now exist!

v 27 - “I beg you”;	v 28 - “warn them”
----------------------------	---------------------------

The rich man's insistence that if someone would return from the dead, then his brothers would repent, was simply a subtle way of _____ himself.

Oh, how _____ we are, daring to tell God what He must do if we are ever going to believe! As if He hasn't already done enough!

Think of the mental anguish of all the missed opportunities, of sermons heard, of times when the Gospel was presented - but it was always _____.

No matter how hard you try, it is impossible to _____ away the all-inclusive, tormenting nature of Hell!

Conclusion:

The good news is that the door of opportunity is still wide open.
Hell is _____ - but only through faith in Jesus Christ.

John 3:16 - "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life."

John 14:6 - "Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.'"
